CHEMTREC®
EMERGENCY RESPONSE

Medical Call Services

Medical Exposure Support

When chemical or product exposure incidents occur, CHEMTREC's Emergency Response registration provides access to medical expertise, scalable medical call support, and enhanced exposure reporting and trend analysis to help organizations improve product safety and make informed risk management decisions. We take emergency response beyond simply reading the SDS by delivering specialized support and actionable insights that help improve safety outcomes.

CHEMTREC Medical Services

MEDICAL CALLS

- ✓ 5 free medical calls included with ERI subscription
- ✓ Access to poison centers and medical experts
- ✓ Support for chemical and product exposure incidents
- ✓ Standard incident reporting following exposure event
- ✓ Additional call blocks available for purchase

PRIME MEDICAL

- ✓ Access detailed medical exposure incident data
- ✓ Identify exposure trends and recurring patterns
- ✓ Support product safety and risk management initiatives
- ✓ Generate reports and actionable insights

PRIME Features

CADIN Access
Secure access to medical exposure case data

Case-Level Reporting
Review in-depth exposure case details and outcomes

Trend Analysis
Monitor incident patterns over time

Custom Reporting
Generate reports tailored to your business needs

Data Visualization
Optional dashboards and analytics tools to help you interpret your data

Transform Data into Actionable Insights with PRIME

Move beyond incident notification and gain meaningful insight into medical exposure events. With PRIME Medical, your organization can access the data and reporting needed to identify trends, support product safety initiatives, and make more informed risk management decisions.

www.chemtrec.com/prime | Scan to Request a Quote